Kosygin's Visit Means Trouble

It was a deadly game of musical chairs Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin played with President L. B. Johnson last week. It brought the Soviet premier for a first-time visit to these United States for an appearance at a United Nations hearing.

It is strange that the vaunted Soviet government would so blithely shuffle off the top brass of the world commune just to lodge a squawk that little ol' Israel had kicked the stuffings of the Soviet-sponsored countries surrounding her.

There is logical reason to believe that the Israel-US was a bind to avert addition disaffection between Russia and her sphere of influence. Let's look at the action.

Premier Kosygin angrily announced his trip to the UN to complain about the boundary violation by Israel. He rejected a suggestion that he was to meet with President Johnson.

This explanation was to satisfy Soviet satellites. The long awaited nuclear blast in Red China was announced as Kosygin jockeyed for this position. The blast was a gargantuan hydrogen explosion which shook into a different juxtaposition the world's balance of power.

Mr. Kosygin appeared here as a very un-Soviet-like premier. He agreed to meet with Mr. Johnson. He walked the streets as a sightseer. He smiled very seldom but his mien had a trace of affability — as a guy smiling while someone is standing on his corn.

All of this adds to proof that the Red China blast reached the nerve center of the Soviet clan. If Red China is to burst its bonds and expand its territory, Russia would be the first obstacle—or the most plausible ally.

But Soviet leaders are aware that there can be no unity of purpose with a Red Chinese government dedicated to rule the world with yellow brand communism. This, of course, rules out the white, Russian brand.

Kosygin, and the country he represents, are realists. None of his show of friendship in America stems from the heart—it's from the head.

We suspect that Russia is in deeper trouble than many of us know. Kosygin's show of friendliness is going to cost Americans and cost plenty.

It is anybody's guess how much Kosygin's visit will be made by the United States in a commitment of our youth to another war and a promise of our money to stop Red China.

Life With Paterfamilias

A group in Costa Mesa, performing in anonymity, presents a sensible view of the pressure surrounding Constitutional Rights. That a divergent goal than that offered here may exist with them, is not the reason for this presentation. Whatever the objective the group seeks, the premise following is sound:

"Hundreds of years ago, in Ancient Rome, there was prevalent within that society, a practice so despicable that few but scholars of history now remember.

"It was the Emperor Hadrian, who, towards the decline of Rome's power, took the first step towards reform. This rule of whim and custom as pertained to the taking of human life was rescinded. Hadrian removed from the head of the house the absolute right of life or death over his household, and transferred it to the courts

"It has resided there to society's benefit to this very hour." "Paterfamilias! Dig into the tombs of antiquity and you will find these grotesque social anomalies in abundance. Human sacrifice. Cannibalism, Savagery. Modern civilization has progressed in just that proportion to which they have rejected the depraved practices of former societies, and have substituted the nobler concepts and attitudes which are crystallized in the formerly/unheard of belief in the profound and sacred worth of the individual life. All that is subversive to this belief is a return to the rigors of primordial chaos.

"This almost holy regard for the individual is the light which radiates from all the documents upon which the great American structure of national life rests. It is 'Our Case' before the world . . . our gift to future generations. Stated and restated in a hundred ways, it never changes . . .

'we believe in life . . .'

"Our implement has been law. Ours has been a most reverent sense of the role of law, in sustaining and nurturing a well ordered society. A society in which each man would be free to pursue his own life and livelihood, in full confidence that his recourse was to this law, imperfect as it may seem to purists, our American system of jurisprudence so far outshines any other legal structure, that certainly rather than undermining its very foundation, we are wise to defend it whenever threatened. Paterfamilias now threatens the power and dignity of the law.

"Our laws have served our national interests . . . we have reached a stage in our development in which we almost take for granted its magnificent benefits and safeguards. It augurs well for us to take stock a moment at this juncture. Let us ask this question . . .

'From whence does law come?'

"Not from on high . . . not from outer space. We create law. Out of our own minds and character . . . through our elected legislators . . . we first articulate the law. Let us pay strict heed to the business at hand, then!

"Outside violent revolution . . . there remains only one way in which a nation can die. From within, from fools' play with her own laws. No use to blame outsiders. No nation with strong laws and respect for those laws can fall from subversive action from without.

"Let the law fail . . . and the light of civilization is blown out."

Any way you look at it, it's good heady stuff.

NINETY-NINERS — Chanda Sawant, of Bombay, India, discusses with Isabelle McCrae, the forthcoming Powder-Puff Derby. Mrs. Sawant, wearing a backless sari, is president of the Bombay Chapter of Ninety-Nines. Mrs. McCrae is past president of the El Cajon chapter. Ninety-Nines is an organization of women pilots.

Sari Wearing Pilot Is Visitor Here

by Max Goodwin

Did you ever wonder what the girls in India wore under their saris?

Well, I did.

It's less than the girls in America wear with their mini-skirts — and I have the word of sari-wearing Chanda Sawant of Bombay, India as the authority.

SV Realtor Joins Kiwanians

Ben F. Moore, Spring Valley real estate dealer, with offices on Jamacha Blvd., was made a member of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, at the June 21 breakfast-meeting in Alfonso's Pizza Inn. Ben Moore, who has lived in this area four years, resides on Kenwood dr. He and his wife, Emily, have three children. Ben's main interests, community-wise are the development of the South Bay Freeway (which will come through Spring Valley) and the Sweetwater Lake Recreation development.

Kiwanis member, Larry Coons reported a letter from the Circle K Club of Grossmont College, expressing their thanks to S.V. Kiwanis Club, for support during the past year.

Frank Rose reported the Spring Valley Kiwanis project to have a sewer line installed in the old adobe house (Bancroft Ranch House) had been successful, as he had been able to have the work done at a reduced cost, thereby having the line in that escrow can be cleared for the purchase of the building by the Historical Society.

Guest speaker at the meeting was Tom Lean Jr., director of the La Mesa Recreation Park Department. His subject was "Health Month." He told of the importance of recreation in a Democracy. He said individual health development is important, along with love, rest and worship.

Lean pointed out that a recreation area is of major importance in any city. He told of the expansion of the West Coast within the next 15 years; that it will be solid between Los Angeles and San Diego and between San Diego and Alpine, and that many of the areas are not over ten years old. These are important reasons for recreation, Lean said.

Cat Burglar Stalks LG

A cat burglar has struck in Lemon Grove. A man with a twisted left foot and trademark signing his thefts, "I was he" in red lipstick and dedicates the property he trespasses.

The home of Juanita Sprague, 1501 Angus, Lemon Grove, was burglarized June 20 after 10 p.m. The Spragues were asleep in their bedroom when the burglary occurred.

The burglar scaled a low fence in back of the Sprague home, removed a screen and placed it against the fence. Then dedicated between the house and the fence.

Once inside the house, the thief robbed the Sprague's wallets and purses, taking about $30, and left as he had entered. On the fence, he left his cryptic message, "I was he" in a pink substance (probably lipstick) that turns bright red to the touch.

LG Girl Named Embassy Secretary

Grossmont District Adopts 1967-68 Operations Budget

The Grossmont Union High School District Governing Board, at its special meeting June 25, adopted a preliminary budget in the amount of $13,343,914 to finance the operations of the District for 1967-68. This increased budget is the result of a 700 student growth in enrollment, spiraling inflationary cost of materials, and a decision to grant the employees of the district at least a cost of living raise. The administration estimates that this budget will require a 15c increase in the operating tax rate for 1967-68.

Superintendent Warburton reported that pending legislative action will, in all probability, change the structure of this preliminary budget. Both the Governor and the legislature are committed to additional financing for schools and a general roll served 28 years on the board and Joseph Colton, of 6090 Canton dr., who has served 20 years on the board of directors. Handing out the citations at the right is Harold Glataser, who is also a member of the board. Nine directors were honored at the monthly luncheon meeting at 402 Fifth ave.

L.G. School District OKs $2,438,533 Budget

Lemon Grove School Trustees, OK'd a budget of $2,438,533 at the regular board meeting Monday night. In it was added an increased salary proposal for district employees.

A fly in the ointment was that $80,000, representing the increase, is anticipated from State funds — and State has yet to decide whether such funds will be made available.

"If the funds are not allocated by State," we'll have to take another look at the salary proposals and district income to see how much of it we can put together," Byron Netzel, district superintendent said.

The Board then adopted a resolution reserving the right to increase annual salaries. Anniversary increments have already been provided for the board made clear.

Wiley Cornelius, reported that summer school enrollment was up 160 students to 1,139.

A framed certificate was presented to Superintendent Netzel by Board President Bert Cosby, for 25 years of service to the district.

The Board noted that Netzel had provided positive leadership and had developed harmonious relations as the district's personnel grew from 13 to 274 and to a student population of 4,000.

LG Residents Hit With 75¢ Trash Hike

The taxpayer will soon get a double barreled rise in the cost of living when the County Dumps (Sanitary Fills) start holding out their hands for the privilege of using their facilities. Meanwhile, those who make a living at picking up unwanted refuse, Garbage collectors, Refuse Disposal Technicians, Trash Removers, whatever they are (suppose, it's all in what part of town one lives in) will hike their fees to picking up the trash on a daily level.

$30,000 Bail Set For Former LG Man

A federal grand jury indicted a former Lemon Grove man on an escape charge stemming from a 35-foot leap from a second-story window at the U.S. District Courthouse in San Diego.

The jury recommended bail at $30,000 for Walter Emmett Maxted, 34, now of Nevada.

Maxted suffered fractures of both heels and his neck in his jump to freedom from a window of the U.S. Marshal's office June 3. He was awaiting resumption of a trial in which he faced charges of federal marijuana violations at the time of his escape.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents recaptured Maxted within three hours. They said he was in a field near the intersection of Jamacha and Campo roads in Spring Valley. He had to be carried out of the field on a stretcher.

La Mesa, El Cajon and National City have to suffer with a 25c hike and another 25c hike is pending. No so with Lemon Grove, Frank Thomas, the resident engineer in the area for refuse disposal, has hiked his fees from $2 per household to $2.75 starting Saturday.

Property Tax Rate Up 13¢

A budget that will possibly involve a tax hike of 13¢ for each $100 assessed valuation of San Diego County property, was approved Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors.

The budget, involving $143.4 million of taxpayers money, is up $19 million from its predecessor. The tax rate on the previous budget is $2.33.

The supervisors cut $2,056,028 from the budget at an earlier hearing.

The tax rate cannot be nailed down until the tax assessor announces the total assessed valuation within a few days and until the state Board of Equalization releases figures on the value of public utilities.

The new budget reflects a $3 million boost in salaries for county workers.

LG PO Announces Parcel Post Increase In Weight Allowances

The Post Office will start handling heavier packages on July 1.

That's the day when the allowable weight of parcel post increases by five pounds—to 25 pounds. The new regulation applies to those packages sent between first class offices less than 150 miles from each other.

The increase is the first of five which will take place each year until 1971, when a 40-pound, 84 inch maximum in girth and length will be allowed between stations.

Lemon Grove Postmaster, Frenchy Faucher, said that 40 pounds still will be handled between first class offices less than 150 miles from each other.

Faucher also said packages addressed to and from 2nd, 3rd and 4th class offices will not be affected by the new law.

State Park Eyed In Spring Valley

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh and Senator Claire Burdick introduced a joint resolution this week instructing the State Park and Recreation Commission to make a study of the feasibility of putting a state park in Spring Valley.

Deddeh said that no location had been suggested by the pair. He said both he and Burdick had received numerous letters requesting the action. There has been considerable interest in establishing a park at the S.V. Chamber of Commerce site.

Record 12.8 Million Budget Approved By Grossmont

In a meeting held June 26, Grossmont school trustees gave the residents of the Grossmont School district a choice of deteriorating education, higher taxes or a merger of elementary and high school districts.

The trustees then proceeded to adopt the largest budget in the eight-school district's history, $12.8 million, an increase of nearly a million dollars over the present budget.

In dollars and cents to the taxpayer, the increase means an additional 18¢ per $100 assessed valuation. The operating tax rate is expected to increase from $1.42 to $1.63 for each $100 of valuation. The rate will be set later.

Trustees approved in the budget a minimum 2.7 per cent cost of living increase for district employees unless additional state funds are forthcoming.

District superintendent John T. Warburton told trustees that unifying elementary and high school districts is the only answer to the growing financial problems of both.

Dr. Warburton said that unifying into a single 474-square-mile district encompassing nine elementary and the one high school district is not the only solution.

A single-district plan was defeated by the voters a year ago.

The preliminary budget adopted does not call for any specific expansion of the educational program in the high schools. To maintain the present program, trustees would, costs have risen considerably.

There are 700 more students in the district than there were a year ago.

Trustees have approved asking the voters next fall to vote for a $6 million bond issue to be spread over several years to meet the growing need for high school facilities in the east county area.

S.V. CoC Property Sale Snagged By Opponents

The San Diego County Board of Supervisors have deferred action on the proposed purchase of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce property and Community Hall at 9050 Memory lane.

The purchase, given a nod of approval by supervisors earlier this year, would have used $18,000 of Spring Valley Recreation Department funds. The property is valued at considerable more than $18,000.

Ed Steiner, chairman of an advisory committee of the Recreation District, urged the purchase of the property. He said it could be used for recreation programs.

Rosarie Graham, S.V. Chamber of Commerce president and proponent of the property's sale, said chamber directors have extended the deadline for purchase until Jan. 18, 1968 to accommodate further consideration by county government.

Attorney William Faulwetter, a director of the Spring Valley Fire District and former S.V. chamber president spoke in favor of the proposal. He said the opposition is based on the fact that the property is worth $33,000, twice the price being asked of the county.

Eugene Hayden, a member of the La Presa Town Council and of the La Presa Water Board, was the lone spokesman against the proposal but he had a vocal following in the audience in the supervisors' chambers. He presented a pe-

Improper Headlights Lead Defect List

Headlights are the source of the most common defect found by the five-man passenger vehicle inspection teams of the California Highway Patrol. Captain Roland Gautsche, Commander of the San Diego Area, said recently.

"Slightly more than 60 per cent of all cars inspected by the teams have something wrong with their headlights and it is usually improper aiming," Captain Gautsche said. "You can improve your chances of passing the inspection and receiving the Patrol's sticker if you have your lights adjusted now."

Headlights which are aimed too high can blind an approaching driver and headlights which are aimed too low reduce the field of vision of the driver of the vehicle. The latter defect is found more frequently than the former.

"The Patrol has contacted auto dealers and manufacturers and have asked them to increase their efforts to see that the lights of the cars they sell are properly adjusted, but the driver is still responsible for knowing his car meets the law's requirements," Captain Gautsche said.

Fatal Mistakes . . .

Mistakes in freeway driving are often fatal mistakes, according to the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council. When you're traveling the freeways this summer, make sure to plan your exits well in advance. Stay with the flow of traffic and blend smoothly and quickly when entering an expressway.

Stinging-Biting Insects Can Be Deadly

Wasps, hornets, bumblebees, ants, mosquitoes, chiggers, scorpions, honey bees, centipedes, spiders, ticks, caterpillars, flies, fleas, and bed bugs are just a few of nature's creeping, crawling, and flying creatures whose sting or bite can be painful and sometimes deadly.

Bees, wasps and chiggers are usually the worst annoyances of farmers, fishermen, hunters, and picnickers—but in certain areas scorpions, tarantulas, and poisonous spiders are also a problem.

If stung by a honey bee, remember that time is a big factor in minimizing the pain. Once a bee stings, the barbed stinger and venom-filled sac stay attached to the skin. It takes a bee two or three minutes to inject the whole amount of venom through its stinger, and even though the bee has been brushed aside, the sac continues to pump the venom. Examine the site of the sting and with a knife or fingernail, scrape the stinger off immediately. Don't try to grasp the stinger with fingers as it is likely more venom will be squeezed into the skin. For first aid, apply a strong Epsom salts solution to draw out whatever poison is under the skin. The area may also be coated with an analgesic cream which will reduce pain and relieve itching.

Hornets, yellow jackets, queen bees, wasps, and bumblebees do not leave their venom sacs when they sting and, consequently, may sting more than once. These stings bring redness, aching, and itching. If stung many times enough venom can be absorbed to make a person quite ill. Under those circumstances one should see a physician.

Chiggers and ticks, some of which may spread Rocky Mountain spotted fever and tularemia, usually attach themselves to a person's ankles or legs. Remove them with forceps or tweezers if they can be seen. Sometimes the parasites will come out if a lighted cigarette is brought near. To relieve intense itching, apply a weak solution of use a reliable ointment recommendation or baking soda, or mended by a physician.

As a rule, most spiders are harmless. However, the black widow spider, easily identified by an orange-red hourglass spot on her belly, can cause trouble. So can a tarantula and some centipedes. For first aid treat these bites like snake bites. With a razor blade or sharp knife, cut an X through the puncture spot and suck out the poison. See a physician immediately.

Although there are only two of 40 or more species of scorpions in the West that are poisonous to humans, all of these creeping creatures can inflict a painful sting. Don't take chances. See a physician at once if bitten. Victims allergic or extremely sensitive to the venom, children under five years of age, persons who have a history of heart trouble, and those who have been considered emergency cases and rushed to a hospital or physician.

To keep from getting stung or bitten by insects, follow this advice: bees and wasps usually sting when they are actually touched, or when their nest is threatened. If several bees are seen disappearing under leaves, don't tread there. Repellents will ward off mosquitoes, chiggers, ants, and other insects looking for food—but have little or no value in keeping stinging insects away, because once aroused they will attack.

Skyline Democrats Slate Fri. Dance

The first social activity of the newly-reorganized Skyline Democratic Club will be a "Shipwreck Dance" to be held in the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce Bldg., 9050 Memory lane, Friday night, at 3 p.m. Dance chairman Sol Williams announced the event, which will feature Dick Braun's Band.

Skits and other entertainment will be presented during the band's intermissions. Drawings for door-prizes will be held throughout the evening.

Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin, State Senator James Mills, and Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh and Jim Bear have accepted invitations to come and meet their constituents.

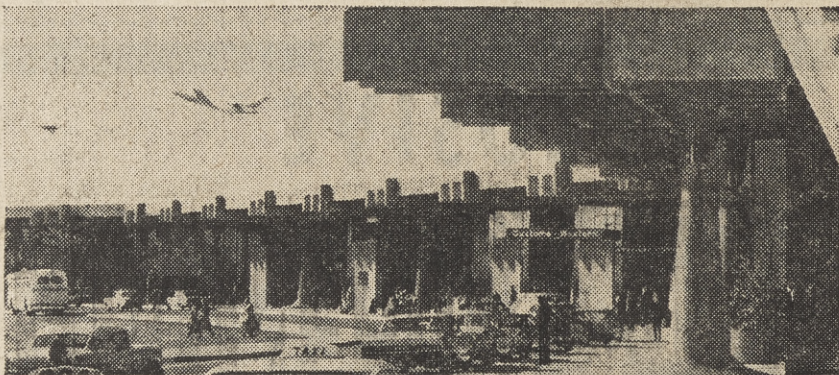

Beer, snacks, and set-ups will be served at a no-host bar. Tickets may be obtained from N. P. Peralto, ticket chairman, (479-2206) or at the door, for $1.50 per person or $2.50 per couple.

The new Skyline Club is the result of a merger of the four area clubs (Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, La Mesa and the old Skyline clubs) which combined operations last fall to staff the Lemon Grove Democratic Headquarters during the election campaign.

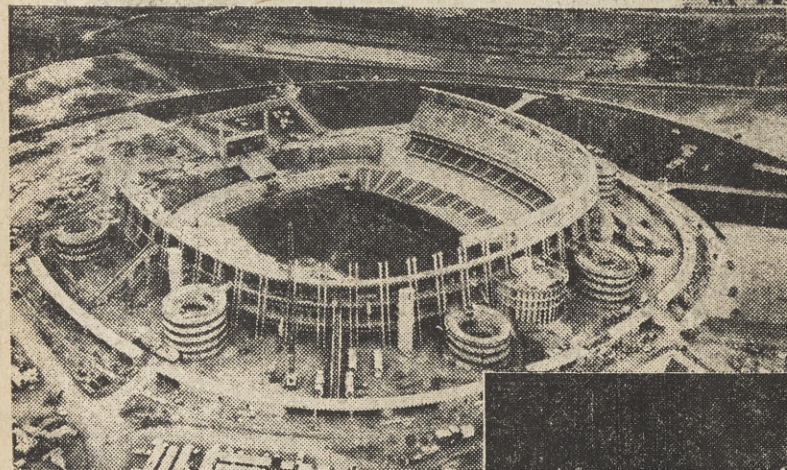

The groups worked well together, and in April of this year, the merger was adopted to avoid duplication of effort. The new Skyline Club will serve the entire north-east portion of the 37th Congressional District, from Encanto east to Jamul, and from Bonita north to La Mesa.

The Skyline Club hopes to make this dance an annual affair, according to Frank Abate, president. "We are inviting all Democrats in the area to come, bring their friends, get acquainted with each other and their elected representatives, and to just plain have a bang-up time," he said.

Where does San Diego get all its energy

Big things are happening in San Diego today in a wide range of commercial enterprises . . . including a diversity of new industrial facilities like the recently announced National Cash Register and Union Carbide complexes.

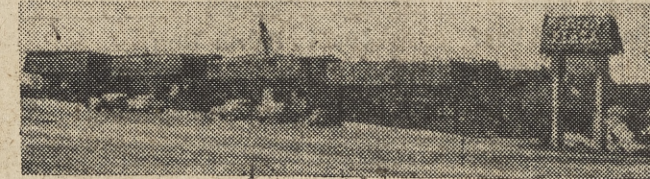

SDG&E is building new levels of achievement too . . . serving San Diego's surging power requirements through nuclear power, expanding transmission and distribution networks, and operation of the first Liquefied Natural Gas Plant in the West. It can liquefy the equivalent of 620 million cubic feet of natural gas, store it, and turn it into natural gas again when needed.

These and other upcoming facilities of San Diego Gas & Electric Company will provide adequate supplies of low cost energy to power the growth of San Diego for generations to come.

Three LM-SV Teachers Retire

Three La Mesa-Spring Valley School District teachers closed their teaching careers last June 16. Jointly they chalked up 98 years of classroom teaching. One had also served as a teaching principal.

Teachers are: Mrs. Betty Letsinger, second-grade at Avondale; Mrs. Irene Steer, fifth-grade at Bancroft; and Mrs. Elgie Steiger, first and second-grade at La Mesa Dale School.

Mrs. Letsinger began her teaching career in a one-room school in Nebraska. Later she taught an English class in a Presbyterian school in Havana and classes for the United Fruit Company in Guatemala. Her other teaching experience prior to coming to the LM-SV District was in Montana and Deland, California.

In 1947 Mrs. Letsinger came to La Mesa to teach for one year under the late Miss Irma Rombauer. From 1948 through this year she has served under Donald Barnes, principal, at Rolando Park, Northmont, and most recently, Avondale.

Mrs. Letsinger received her A.B. degree from San Diego State and has taken courses at several eastern colleges including the University of Nebraska. Before coming to La Mesa in 1958 Mrs. Steer had taught in Pennsylvania for 32 years. Her entire experience locally has been at Bancroft School in Spring Valley. There she taught under William Schell, Paul Radenheimer and William Paslay. Mrs. Steer received her B.S. degree from Duquesne University and she also attended Pennsylvania State College. She has served on professional and curricula committees and has been active in school drama projects.

Except for her first year, Mrs. Steiger has been assigned to La Mesa Dale for her entire 19 years of District teaching. There she served under Mrs. Grace Martin, Shannon Jones, Richard Ratchin, the late Miss Irma Rombauer, Don Cochenour, and the present principal, Robert Davis.

Before coming to La Mesa, Mrs. Steiger taught for 10 years in Michigan. During her entire teaching career she has taught only first and second-grade children.

Mrs. Steiger earned a Life Certificate in Art at Michigan State Normal and a B.A. at San Diego State. She has served on all major teachers association committees and has held many PTA offices. She was awarded a Life Membership by the La Mesa Dale PTA. She is a member of the American Association of University Women.

A good foundation in basic phrase is important when first learning to speak Spanish. A basic phrase can be expanded by adding one or more auxiliary words. Consider the basic phrase "Yo desee." (I wish). By adding words like "comer" (to eat), "dormir" (to sleep), "ver" (to see), "saber" (to know), the phrase can be expanded to give more meaning to ones wishes. For example one may say "Yo desee ver." (I wish to see), or one may say "Yo desee comer." (I wish to eat).

Another basic phrase is "Yo puedo." (I can). To this phrase we may add words like "jugar" (to play), "leer" (to read), "ir" (to go), "as many others. The phrase "Yo puedo ir." (I can go) is an expansion of the phrase "Yo puedo," plus the word "ir." If you wish to make the expression "Yo puedo jugar," the basic phrase "Yo puedo," is added to "ir."

See how many other words you can apply to the basic phrases "Yo desee" and "Yo puedo." Remember that the additional Spanish words you select must end in "ar," "er," "or," "ir."

Study the practice phrases below in today's lesson. Read them over carefully and pronounce them from the phonetic guide provided. Then dial 276-2762 on your telephone where you hear the words and phrases repeated on an automatic voice recording for your practice pleasure.

IMPORTANT PHRASES

Miles came to the LM-SV District in 1953 after having been principal of an elementary school for six years in Los Alamitos New Mexico. Previously he had taught in the elementary grades in New York and New Jersey schools.

He served as principal of Fletcher Hills School from 1953 through June 1960; then he was appointed principal of Rancho School.

Miles received his B.S. degree in 1939 from New York University and his M.A. in 1946 at Teachers College, Columbia University. During the World War II period he was an instructor in the Marchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, Long Island.

Ashton has been serving as acting principal of Rancho School since Miles went on leave. His appointment as a regular elementary school principal will be effective with the new school year.

Ashton came to the district in 1953 and taught five years at La Mesa Elementary School and four years at Maryland Avenue School. Since September 1962 he has been assigned to the curriculum department, first with the Cluster and Enrichment Program during the 1962-63 year and then as a resource teacher until November 1966 when he was appointed acting principal at Rancho School.

Ashton, a native Californian, received his B.A. degree in 1945 from the University of Redlands and his M.A. in 1960 from San Diego State. He also attended the Claremont Graduate School. During the World War II years he served with the Signal Corps.

The proposed park, an adjunct to the Balboa Park Zoo, has been under consideration for several years. In a master plan adopted by the City Council in August, 1965, the land was earmarked for possible development as a zoological exhibit.

Appointments Named For Sam Miles and Geo. Ashton

Two appointments have been announced by Glenn E. Murrock, superintendent of schools of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District.

Sam Miles has been appointed coordinator of special education and George Ashton as an elementary school principal.

Miles, principal of Rancho School since 1960, took a leave of absence in November for health reasons. He has since returned on special assignment with responsibility for the summer school and Operation Head Start programs. He will assume his new position effective July 1.

Miles will work with Dr. Margery McIntosh, director of pupil personnel services, assuming some of the responsibilities for coordination and planning within the department.

Miles came to the LM-SV District in 1953 after having been principal of an elementary school for six years in Los Alamitos New Mexico. Previously he had taught in the elementary grades in New York and New Jersey schools.

He served as principal of Fletcher Hills School from 1953 through June 1960; then he was appointed principal of Rancho School.

Following six months of intensive study, Trepte explained, "the committee reported to the board that they were most favorably impressed with the possibilities of a highly successful tourist attraction at the Kenya-like site. They have made helpful recommendations on both its physical and financial aspects."

Trepte added that the study group's work was bolstered by an up-dated study conducted by the Sanford Research Institute. "Their exhaustive surveys indicated the financial feasibility of construction of such a park without detracting from our present world famous zoo."

He said they estimated that as many as 12,000 people a day might visit the park where the animals would roam free. "It has been recommended that the facility would be served by both safari railroad and bus."

The project would start with extensive tree-planting and fencing of the area could begin later this year, if the financing procedure is resolved to the board's satisfaction in the near future, Trepte stated.

Current plans call for construction of a one-by-two mile park on the north side of San Pasqual Valley, about six miles east of Escondido, surrounding the battle monument. The area would initially be stocked with hooved animals, such as antelope and giraffes, in addition to ground birds; and later, elephants, rhinos, hippos, tigers, lions, primates, etc., could be added.

Parking for some 5,000 cars, a restaurant and concession facilities may be considered for the flat portion of the site adjacent to State 78.

Wild Animal Park Slated For SD Area

A plan to create an African-type wild animal park in San Pasqual Valley has received conditional approval from the board of trustees of the San Diego Zoological Society.

The full 12-member board met in a special session at the zoo June 22.

Board president A. Eugene Trepte said a motion was passed that such a park be established with the proviso that a plan of financing the multi-million dollar project be developed acceptable to the trustees.

Trepte said he expects to appoint three trustees to explore methods of financing at the next board meeting, June 28.

The proposed park, an adjunct to the Balboa Park Zoo, has been under consideration for several years. In a master plan adopted by the City Council in August, 1965, the land was earmarked for possible development as a zoological exhibit.

The site is about 30 miles north of the present zoo. It is envisioned as a fenced wild animal preserve which would enable visitors to view the animals and birds in their natural surroundings.

MAIL BAG

Dear Editor:

I'm sure the raise of 7 cents per month in the rate of trash collection services for residents in Lemon Grove is not news to the readers of this paper.

What may be news to them is that La Mesa residents, who also have twice a week service in that department, will be only billed an additional 25 cents per month. Chula Vista and El Cajon also will increase their rates 25 cents per month. These increases are made to offset the dump fees to be charged by the county, taking effect July 1, 1967.

La Mesa and El Cajon collectors originally asked for 50 cents per month increase for residential service. Of this, approximately 25 cents could offset the dumping fees with the other 25 cents taking care of increased cost of doing business. Their city councils only approved the first 25 cents increase and took under advisement the additional 25 cent request pending more information from these collection services on the need for higher rates.

Residents in these three county areas, as of July 1, 1967, will be paying a total of $2.00 per month. Here in Lemon Grove we will be paying $2.75 per month. In my opinion, the collector in Lemon Grove would be justified in asking a 50 cents per month increase per residential unit to cover costs of dumping and increased costs of doing business, such as salary raises, maintenance and repair of truck, replacement of equipment, added mileage costs due to new location of our dump area, etc.

The average collection truck can service 150 customers houses per load, which in a two month period involves dumping that truck 18 times. From these same 150 customers, at the additional 75 cents per month or $1.50 per two month period, an additional $225.00 will be collected. Of this, approximately one third will be needed to cover dumping fees, leaving two thirds for ?

Unlike commercial rates which are based on amount of refuse to be disposed of, the residential customers, whether families of one person or ten people, whether living in small or large homes on small or large lots, are all charged the same amount.

I do believe if the collectors in other county areas can stay in business on the raises that have been granted them I think that our Lemon Grove collector should be able to do the same on a 50 cents raise per month—not 75 cents.

Everytime I called you to have a picture of a group made at school you sent someone and gave us good coverage in the news. All of the writeups on the honors rolls for each quarter gave recognition to very worthy students. And I am sure that the publicity given for all of the scheduled events of the PTA helped to make them a success.

Your newspaper is a fine means of communication between the school and the community. We are grateful to you.
